JR Iron Chef

Earlier this month, Little Flower chefs Russell, Gianna and Alex competed against ten other high school teams in the Cornell Cooperative's Annual JR. Iron Chef competition.

The Little Flower team took first place with their winning dish of lentil, quinoa and kale broth bowls. Unlike previous years, the teens had less time to practice but their competence and skills shone through helping them to maintain a winning record. The youth were also awarded the Suffolk Apple Award (presented to the top three chefs) and the Professionalism Award (our chefs were the only ones in chef coats)!

Congratulations to our young chefs for a job well done!

Monsignor John T. Fagan Awards

Got your tickets yet? The Msgr. John T. Fagan Awards are quickly approaching!

Join us as we honor MaryLiz Manning Kade for her lifelong connection to Little Flower and two of our amazing caregivers for their dedication to the children and developmentally disabled adults in our care.

We're looking forward to spending the evening with our honorees, friends, supporters and YOU and to enjoying gourmet hors d'oeuvres, a full bar, live music, and a silent and live auction filled with great items!
