Little Flower Honors Peter Armstrong Egan of Nixon Peabody at Annual Golf Classic

On Monday, September 17th, Little Flower honored Peter Armstrong Egan, partner at Nixon Peabody LLC at our Annual Golf Classic at Engineers Country Club in Roslyn. Over one hundred supporters gathered to celebrate the transformative and innovative work Little Flower provides each year.

Peter remarked, "Little Flower is going out-of-the-box in groundbreaking ways for a human services organization. Everyone should know about Little Flower."

The event's success was due in large part to our dedicated committee led by Howard H. Nolan of BNB Bank and Frank Tosto of Alliant Insurance Services who worked tirelessly to raise funds and secure sponsorships.

Guests heard from one of our Culinary Arts youth chefs, Ronald, about how Little Flower “empowers me with more than just essential life skills. I have grown tremendously, and have opportunities to share my creativity. The Little Flower community has embraced me, and given me hope”.

The event brought in over $154,000 to benefit Little Flower’s programs and services. The evening was sponsored in part by: Alliant Insurance Services, Atlantic, Tomorrow’s Office, BNB Bank, Cook Maran & Associates, Executive Cleaning Services, Swezey Oil Company, Nixon Peabody; and Mercedes-Benz who sponsored the hole-in-one.

Thank you to our staff, donors, and friends who came together for an extraordinary evening!

Little Flower is Sanctuary Certified!

Little Flower is proud to announce, that after a five-year journey, we are officially a Sanctuary certified organization!

As a Sanctuary organization, Little Flower is committed to promoting safety and recovery from adversity through the active creation of a trauma-informed community. All of us at Little Flower recognize that trauma is pervasive in the human experience, which forms the basis of the Sanctuary Model's focus on not only the people who seek treatment but also on the people and systems providing treatment.

We aim to provide the best care for our clients' well-being and a positive work environment for our staff while maintaining a trauma-informed culture that makes it easier to identify stress in our community. Being attentive to these indicators enables us to create a safe and nurturing atmosphere for everyone to flourish.

We look forward to growing as an organization to better serve the community through the use of learned Sanctuary tools!
